

Cookie Policy for Epixs4U

What are cookies?

Cookies are small text files placed on your device when you visit a website. They are used to remember your preferences and improve the functionality of the website. Cookies may also be used to collect statistics and provide you with personalized content.

Which cookies do we use?

1. Strictly necessary cookies: These cookies are essential for the operation of our website. Without these cookies, certain features, such as secure login areas, cannot be accessed.
2. Performance cookies: These cookies collect information about how visitors use our website, such as which pages are most visited. This data is used to improve the performance of the website.
3. Functional cookies: These cookies remember your choices (such as language preferences) to personalize your experience on the site.
4. Advertising and tracking cookies: These cookies are used to display relevant ads and track your browsing behavior on the website. They help us understand which content is of interest to you and improve our marketing strategies.

Managing cookies

You can manage or delete cookies through your browser settings. You can set your browser to notify you when cookies are being placed or to block all cookies. However, please note that disabling cookies may affect the functionality of our website.

Changes to the cookie policy

We may update this cookie policy from time to time to reflect changes in our practices. We recommend checking this page regularly for the latest information on our cookie policy.
